

I, _____ am placing a deposit or "holding fee" on a litter between (Parents Names)

I understand that this litter has not arrived yet. Being a litter that has not arrived, deposit holder understands that anything can happen in pregnancy and young puppies (miscarriage, reabsorption, fading puppies, etc) and a refund will not be given in case of any of the following, including but not limited to: unfortunate issues that may arise in pregnancy or young puppies as described above, dam does not become pregnant or loses litter, color/gender that deposit holder wanted is not available. The holding fee is 100% nonrefundable, but will be transferred to the next available litter.

Buyer understands that they are placing a holding fee at their own risk.

Deposits/holding fees on puppies from LoEll's Standard Poodles are 100% non-refundable. Please thoroughly think this through before placing any money down and be 100% committed to taking this puppy. Deposit transfers are at the discretion of the breeder. Due to the inconvenience of deposit transfers, a fee of $150 will be added to the total purchase price if a transfer is made for any reason.

LoElls Standard Poodles also reserves 1st pick of every litter. This does not mean we will keep one from every litter, but reserve the right to do so out of any litter. You will pick your puppy based on the order of deposits received (EX: 1st to place a deposit picks their puppy first, then second to place picks, and so on)

I understand that if a dispute should arise, all settlements will be made in the venue of Christian County MO.
